TO PROVIDE FOR AND REGULATE THE SALE
OF CERTAIN LANDS.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Legislature of the Province of British Columbia, passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled the "New Westminster City Lands Act, 1884," the lands hereinafter mentioned were granted to the Corporation of the City of New Westminster; that is to say:—The two Reserves between Queen's Avenue and Royal Avenue, intersected by Simcoe Street; the two Reserves bounded by Queen's Avenue, Royal Avenue, Clinton Place, Bonson Street, and the Park; Saint Andrew's Square; Saint George's Square; Saint Patrick's Square; Louise Gardens; Alice Gardens; Victoria Gardens; Government Office Gardens; Sailors' Home; Merchants' Square; Lytton Square; Pleasure Grounds; fifteen in all, and coloured red on the official map of the City of New Westminster and deposited in the Land Registry Office:

And whereas it was by the said Act provided that it should be lawful for the said Corporation to sell and convey all or any part of the said lands, and for the Council of the said Corporation to pass By-Laws, from time to time, to determine what parts of the said lands should be sold, for what price, and upon what terms; provided that no sale should be had except by public auction, after notice thereof should have been given for at least fifteen days prior to such sale in one or more newspapers published in the said city, and that every such By-Law should, before the final passing thereof, receive the assent of the electors of the Municipality of the said City, as provided in section seventy-four of the "Municipality Act, 1881," and that no person should vote upon any such By-Law excepting those qualified under section 22 of the said Act:

And whereas it is deemed expedient by the said Council that a By-Law should be passed to provide for and regulate the sale of the said lands, as hereinafter mentioned:

Therefore, the Mayor and Council of the Corporation of the City of New Westminster enact as follows:

1. The said lands shall be sold in the manner and subject to the terms and conditions herein set forth.

2. The said lands shall be sold according to certain maps or plans thereof made by Woods & Turner, Land Surveyors, bearing date the 25th day of June, 1884, and deposited in the Land Registry Office.

3. The said Mayor and Council, subject always to the terms of the said Act and of this By-Law, may, from time to time, pass resolutions to determine at what time or times, at what place or places within the said City, and by what auctioneer or auctioneers, the sale or sales of the said lands shall be had, and in what newspaper or newspapers notice thereof shall be published, and otherwise to provide for carrying the provisions of this By-Law into effect, and may alter or repeal any such resolution.

4. The said lands shall be sold subject to the reserve bid or value in respect of each lot mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and each lot shall be sold separately.

5. The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, if his or her bid shall exceed the said reserved bid or value, and if any dispute arise as to the last or highest bidder the lot shall immediately be put up again at the former bidding, and no person shall advance less than five dollars at a bidding, and no bidding shall be retracted.

6. The purchaser shall pay immediately upon becoming such purchaser a deposit of 33½ per cent. of the purchase money and sign an agreement for the payment of the remainder as follows: 33½ per cent. in three months and the balance of the purchase money in six months from the date of sale, and thereupon shall be entitled to possession of the land so purchased, and all purchase moneys shall be paid into the Bank of British Columbia, New Westminster, to the credit of a special account of the City, to be called the "Land Sale Account."

7. The purchaser shall be entitled to a conveyance upon payment of all the purchase money, and the said agreement and conveyance shall be furnished by the Clerk of the said Corporation free of charge, according to the forms one and two in Schedule B to this By-Law annexed, and any number of lots may, at the request of the purchaser or purchasers, be included in one agreement or conveyance.

8. Time shall be the essence of the contract as regards the payment of the purchase money, and if the same shall not be paid at the time agreed upon as aforesaid the said agreement shall forthwith, after the expiration of the said time, become void, without notice to the purchaser, who shall immediately yield up possession of the lands to the said Corporation, and all moneys paid on account of the purchase money shall be forfeited to the said Corporation.

9. The said lands being granted to the said Corporation by the said Act, the purchaser shall not be entitled to any evidences of the title of the said Corporation thereto.
